Letter no. A. 2297-27 dated 6th June 1928 from the Deputy Commissioner Madurai District

States that the levy of fine at the enhanced rate of two annas on each sheep and goat is being levied as per Government notification No 15-282/LR 375-92 dated 15-3-[illegible]

An extract of the notification referred to is put up. Submitted for orders, with reference to para 1.

HS
26.6.28

Under Rule 12, Govt. can only authorise a fine for habitual trespass on the animals referred to herein, not exceeding double the rate prescribed ordinarily therein for such animals. Authority has already been issued for the area in question authorising the levy of double the fine. It would be illegal to collect double the fine. No recommendation has been received

The ratio fee may please be allowed as it seems to be necessary to meet the expenditure

SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Amildar, Mudigere Taluk reports that stray sheep and goats in Kalasa Town have become very troublesome and the owners are not taking proper care of them. The matter was considered in a meeting of the Village Panchayat held on 23rd December 1927, when it was resolved to enhance the pound charges on goats and sheep from 2 annas to 4 annas and to levy in addition, a ration fee of 0-1-3 per day on cattle and 0-1-0 per day on sheep or goats A copy of the resolution of the Panchayat is herein enclosed for favour of kind perusal.

2. Under Section 72(4) as of C.T.A.) I recommend that Government may be pleased to kindly sanction the proposal of the Panchayat

Sir,

I beg to submit herewith the report from the chairman of the Kalasa panchayet together with a copy of the resolution of the panchayet to the effect that the pound fee for sheep and goats may be enhanced from 0-2-0 to 0-4

The sheep & goats are as a whole a menace these pests & special steps in this direction is absolutely necessary. Nobody can have a patch of vegetable & flower garden on account of these pests. The owners are generally leaving them loose without taken proper care of them. Some restrictions are there essential. Under the circumstances I reque that the levy of a fee of 0-4-0 on sheep & goats & in addition ration fee at 0-1-0 on cattle & at 0-1-0 per day on sheep & goats per day may kindly be recommended to Govt for approval. The Mudigere Municipality has also made a similar resolution to enhance the pay of pound fee on sheep & goats & this solution has also been submitted for sanction 4 months back.
